February 25, 2009 10:46 AM - A Mississauga recruiting firm was among four finalists for the 2009 Family Enterprise of the Year Achievement Award in the GTA.

LEAPJob, a sales and marketing recruitment firm, lost out to Pizza Nova, which will now compete with businesses from across Canada for national recognition.

Mississauga firm LEAPJob was a finalist for the 2009 Family Enterprise of the Year Achievement Award.

The award, offered by the Canadian Association of Family Enterprise, was presented on Monday in Toronto.

BonaVista Pools & Spas and The Printing House were the other finalists.

LEAPJob has operated since 1989. It helps sales and marketing professionals find careers with large and small businesses, and new businesses.
